

Connor & Gallagher OneSource: Streamlining Compliance with PosterElite

Catie Crnkovich from Connor & Gallagher OneSource shares how partnering with PosterElite has transformed their labor law poster management process and improved operational efficiency.

"PosterElite has helped tremendously now that we have a reliable log of all the posters ordered, their tracking details, and the peace of mind that comes with this subscription model," Catie explains. "We can truly 'set it and forget it' which has saved us a ton of time."

Key Benefits:

Improved competitive positioning.

Increased revenue and client satisfaction.

Significant operational efficiency gains.

Reliable tracking and billing system.

Client Impact:

- 30 out of 127 clients currently using the service.
- Plans for Q2 promotion expected to drive more subscriptions.

Catie emphasizes, "The entire process has been extremely smooth and communication has been phenomenal."

Partnership Overview:

Connor & Gallagher OneSource now confidently manages labor law poster compliance for their clients, eliminating the annual scramble and improving overall service delivery.

Catie's Verdict:

"We would recommend PosterElite to other businesses for improving operational efficiency and fast setup and communication. You all have made this process very easy!"

About American Benefits Company:

Connor & Gallagher OneSource is an independent insurance brokerage and HR/benefits outsourcing firm based in Lisle, Illinois, serving clients across 46 states with integrated services including payroll, HRIS, employee benefits, insurance, and retirement planning. By integrating PosterElite's subscription-based labor law poster compliance solution—including physical posters, digital ePosterCenter access, and reliable order tracking—CGO has streamlined operations, improved client satisfaction, and opened new revenue opportunities with minimal effort Vendor Directory.