

Infinium HR: Simplified Compliance and Streamlined Operations with PosterElite

Mike Hayden from Infinium HR shares how partnering with PosterElite has transformed their labor law compliance processes and operational efficiency.

"PosterElite has been instrumental in addressing our challenges, from streamlining logistics to ensuring compliance with ease," Mike explains. "Their solutions have allowed us to focus on critical business priorities without worrying about outdated posters or compliance gaps."

Key Benefits:

Efficiency: Eliminated Administrative Overhead. PosterElite's order automation and direct-to-client delivery eliminated the need for manual poster management - saving time and resources.

Effortless Compliance Management: The pay-as-you-go E-Update Service ensures clients receive accurate, up-to-date labor law posters automatically.

Increased Client Satisfaction: Reliable compliance solutions provide peace of mind for both Infinium HR and its clients.

Competitive Positioning: Enhanced service offerings strengthen Infinium HR's market standing.

Client Impact:

- All applicable clients are offered the labor law poster service.
- Clients have peace of mind as they stay compliant throughout the year even when requirements change.

Mike emphasizes, "PosterElite's expertise in labor law compliance has been a game-changer. By transitioning to their subscription service, we eliminated the risk of outdated posters and compliance gaps."

Partnership Overview:

Prior to partnering with PosterElite, Infinium HR struggled to ensure their clients received all of the correct and most up-to-date labor law posters. The process was inefficient, time consuming, and complicated. Now, Infinium HR confidently (and effortlessly) provides comprehensive labor law poster compliance to its clients. Time consuming administrative work has been eliminated—giving back valuable time to create a great experience for their clients.

Mike's Verdict:

"Working with PosterElite has been a rewarding experience. Their seamless compliance solutions, expertise, and proactive approach save time and resources while delivering measurable value. We would absolutely recommend PosterElite to other businesses." He adds, "The level of care and professionalism they bring to every interaction is unmatched. Their team is always responsive, knowledgeable, and proactive in addressing our needs."

About InfiniumHR:

Infinium HR is a Southern California-based payroll and human resources services firm founded in 2014 that specializes in helping small businesses navigate California's ever-changing labor laws through a blend of advanced compliance technology and personalized support. Partnering with PosterElite has allowed them to eliminate manual poster management, automate delivery of labor law posters via a pay-as-you-go subscription, and free their team to focus on serving clients rather than chasing updates—a move that streamlined operations and boosted client confidence.
